

Table of Contents

I. Introduction	5
II. Using the Speech and Language Classroom Intervention Manual for Pre-Referral Assessment and Interventions	6
III. Using the Speech and Language Classroom Intervention Manual in Conjunction with the Speech and Language Evaluation Scale.	7
IV. Goals, Objectives, and Interventions	8
A. Articulation
Behavior Number
1. Substitutes one sound for another sound	8
2. Omits a sound in a word	10
3. Inserts an extra sound in a word	12
4. Distorts or mispronounces words or sounds	14
5. Has difficulty imitating speech sounds	16
6. Shows signs of frustration when misunderstood	18
7. Has difficulty sequencing speech sounds	21
8. Articulation interferes with communication	24
9. Speech causes unfavorable listener reaction	26
10. Rate of speech is too fast or too slow	28
B. Voice
Behavior Number
11. Voice quality sounds harsh, breathy, or hoarse	30
12. Voice quality is hypernasal or hyponasal	33
13. Voice is intermittent or completely lost	35
14. Voice volume is too loud or too soft	38
15. Voice pitch is too high or too low	41
16. Voice quality interferes with communication	44
17. Voice quality causes unfavorable listener reaction	47
18. Shows signs of frustration because of vocal quality	50
C. Fluency
Behavior Number
19. Speech is interrupted by “part word repetition”	54
20. Speech is interrupted by “whole word repetition”	57
21. Speech is interrupted by “prolongations”	60
22. Speech is interrupted by “interjections”	63
23. Secondary characteristics are present while speaking	66
24. Dysfluency interferes with daily communication	69
25. Dysfluent speech causes unfavorable listener reaction	72
26. Shows signs of frustration because of dysfluent speech	75

D. Form

Behavior

Number

27. Uses inappropriate subject-verb agreement when speaking	78
28. Uses sentences which are grammatically incomplete when speaking	80
29. Does not form questions appropriately when speaking	82
30. Uses incorrect word order when speaking	84
31. Uses pronouns incorrectly	86
32. Uses inappropriate verb tenses when speaking	88
33. Omits present progressive when speaking	90
34. Can only speak in short, simple sentences	92
35. Uses incorrect grammar when writing	94
36. Composes incomplete sentences or thoughts when writing	96
37. Uses negation inappropriately when speaking	98
38. Omits function words when speaking	100
39. Uses plurality incorrectly in noun and verb forms	103
40. Uses incorrect grammar when speaking	105
41. Can only write simple, short, noncomplex sentences	107

E. Content

Behavior

Number

42. Has difficulty grasping concepts involving time, space, quantity, quality, and directionality	110
43. Has difficulty understanding directions and/or carrying out instructions	113
44. Has difficulty comprehending picture and/or verbal absurdities.	116
45. Has a limited expressive and/or receptive vocabulary.	118
46. Demonstrates inappropriate (or inaccurate) sequencing skills when speaking	121
47. Expresses incomplete thoughts when speaking	124
48. Has difficulty solving math word problems	128
49. Has difficulty understanding what he/she reads	131
50. Has difficulty understanding and using synonyms, antonyms, and homonyms	134
51. Has difficulty understanding analogies	137
52. Has difficulty recognizing and using multiple-meaning words	139
53. Demonstrates difficulty understanding the meaning of words indicating a question . . .	141
54. Has difficulty describing objects or events across several dimensions	144
55. Has difficulty comprehending passive sentence form	147
56. Has difficulty understanding nonliteral forms of speech.	149

F. Pragmatics

Behavior

Number

57. Has difficulty generalizing information from one situation to another	151
58. Has difficulty pretending, role-playing, and imagining	154
59. Lacks spontaneity, originality, and/or variety in verbal interactions.	156
60. Is slow to respond and/or fails to make relevant responses	159
61. Uses inappropriate verbal and/or nonverbal language.	162
62. Demonstrates difficulty expressing logical and reasonable responses to questions . . .	165
63. Has difficulty expressing opinions, feelings, and/or emotions.	168
64. Has difficulty asking for assistance or clarification	170

65. Has difficulty using ritualistic greetings/closings173
66. Has difficulty understanding cause-and-effect relationships.176
67. Demonstrates difficulty with topic initiation, maintenance, and/or closure179
68. Exhibits difficulty using oral language as a tool to obtain desired results182

V. Forms184