

There is ALWAYS a reason why people do what they do - even if it seems like they did it "FOR NO REASON!"

Everyone you know in the whole wide world - your friends, your family, your classmates, your teachers - they all do things, and they have reasons for doing them.

So, the next time you see someone doing anything - even talking to an imaginary friend or wearing mismatched shoes or cartwheeling down a sidewalk, trust me, they have a reason.
