homeless
joking

Blend the sounds into a word. Segment the word into sounds by writing one sound in each square.
Split vowel spellings (o-e) are represented by half squares linked together.

Punctuation exercise

Capital letters and full stops

it had rained for days and days it was great to see the sun again jack gazed across at the workshop grandpa had made for gran at the top of the cliff it clung to the edge of the land like a limpet a sudden wail from gran gave jack a shock

There are 9 capital letters and 5 full stops missing.

Did you spot them all?

Ask the pupil to read through the text and add in capital letters and full stops where necessary. Encourage the pupil to read aloud as this will help him/her identify where the sentences stop.

This game is for two players. Each player needs a batch of counters of one colour. The players take turns to throw the die. They read a word in the column that corresponds to the number on the die and place their counter on that word. The first to have three of his/her counters in a row in any direction is the winner.
