

They especially liked the trophy in the glass case outside the school office.

Kevin was determined to win that prize.

Then people would notice him.

Then he would be famous.

All eyes would be on him.